

Genesis 12:1-9 (NRSVUE)

Now the Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” So Abram went, as the Lord had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother’s son Lot and all the possessions that they had gathered and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. Then the Lord appeared to Abram and said, “To your offspring I will give this land.” So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him. From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east, and there he built an altar to the Lord and invoked the name of the Lord. And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax-collection station, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with Jesus and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have not come to call the righteous but sinners.” .....While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from a flow of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she was saying to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that moment. When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread through all of that district.

Mark Bender

We bless the Father and the Son and Holy Spirit.
Praise Him and magnify Him forever.
Blessed are you, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven,
and above all to be praised and glorified forever.
Praise Him and magnify Him forever.
Glory be to the father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
Praise Him and magnify Him forever.

*Hymn 530 - "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty"

Anthem - "Like Rivers in the Desert"

Diane McAninch

Always giving God, you fill earth with plenty,
food for all your creatures, everything they need.
We, too, share earth's bounty, without our deserving.
Like rivers in the desert, your grace flows through our lives.

Always patient God, you know all our wanderings,
see our imperfections, and forgive us still.
You correct us gently, without our deserving.
Like rivers in the desert, your grace flows through our lives.

Always present God, here within, beside us,
grieving with our sorrow, joyful for our joy.
Source of hope and comfort, without our deserving.
Live rivers in the desert, your grace flows through our lives.

Always giving God,
Always patient God,
Always present God,
Your grace flows through our lives.
