

Mathew 4:1-11 (NRSVUE)

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tested by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.'" Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Anthem - "The Loving Lamb"

Jennifer Stammers

Alas, and did my Savior bleed, and did my sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head for sinners such as I?

Was it for sins that I have done He suffered on the tree?
Amazing pity, grace unknown, And love beyond degree!

Oh, the Lamb, the loving Lamb, the Lamb on Calvary;
The Lamb was slain, and lives again, to intercede for me.

But drops of grief can never repay the debt of love I owe;
Here Lord, I give myself away, 'tis all that I can do.

Oh, the Lamb, the loving Lamb, the Lamb on Calvary;
The Lamb was slain, and lives again, to intercede for me.
