

Luke 18:9-14 (NRSVUE)

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other, for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

The Women's Fellowship would like to thank the congregation for all the generous donations to pay for mailing our college students care packages. We have heard from many delighted students expressing gratitude for their church family thinking of them at exam time.

Keep me safe, O my God, for You are my refuge.
You are Lord, You are God, apart from You I have nothing.
You alone are my portion, You make my lot secure.
I will praise the Lord, who counsels me even in the night.
Keep me safe, O my God, for You are my refuge.
You are Lord, You are God. apart from You I have nothing.
I will keep my eyes on the Lord, with Him I will not be shaken.
Therefore now my heart is glad, my soul, my soul rejoices.
At Your right hand there are pleasures forever, forever more.
