

John 1:29-42 (NRSVUE)

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned." From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him. Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you but that you be knit together in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been made clear to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else. For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel—and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power. For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Archangelsky/Walker

O light divine the world rejoices as morning dawns and shadows flee.

All nature blends its myriad voices to welcome the morning from on high.

O light eternal love divine, let your bright radiance within us ever shine.

Light eternal shine, O shine upon us.

All glorious, evermore, all glorious, from age to age You are the one unchanging light.

O light divine. Break forth and ever shine. our light, our life from Thee.

the MOUNTAIN SONG

Book, Music, and Lyrics by Pigpen Theatre Co.
Directed By: Kimberly Boles

Winter Dessert Theatre Series

Serving of Desserts and Coffee begins 1 HOUR prior to each performance.

The story follows a carpenter who climbs mountains and traverses rivers in order to attend his daughter's wedding – without a clue as to where it's taking place. Featuring a folk-inspired score performed live by the ensemble, imaginative puppetry, and inventive stagecraft. A heartwarming & adventurous exploration of family, legends, and the power of music & storytelling.
