Ephesians 1:15-23 (NRSVUE)
I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may perceive what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Matthew 25:31-46
"When the Son of Man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world, for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You who are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels, for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment but the righteous into eternal life."

Greeting

Prelude - "Nun danket alle Gott" (Now thank we all our God)
Georg Friedrich Kaufmann (1679-1735)

Call to Worship - "Canticle of Thanksgiving"
John Rutter

Benedictus Dominus: Lord, we thank you for all creation,
We worship you, we honour you, we bless your Holy Name forever.

Lord, you were there before the hills and mountains,
You formed the earth, you made the sea and sky;
You are God, our strength and our salvation
Through a thousand ages passing by.
The earth is yours, and all that is within it,
You gave it life and every gift so fair;
Int the wealth and wonder of creation
You were there, Lord, you were there.

Lord, we are called as servants in your kingdom
To do your work, and not to seek for rest,
Share each load, and bear each other's burdens,
That our lives may be forever blest.
Lord, you are there in gentleness and goodness,
In kindly thouhts and quiet words of prayer:
In the love which binds us all together
You are there, Lord, you are there.

Lord, who can tell the greatness of your glory,
Or who can sing the fullness of your praise?
You are God immortal and eternal;
Grant us strength to serve you all our days.
Through all the years your goodness never failed us:
In times of joy and days of dark despair
You were there, the One who never changes;
You were there, Lord, You still are there, Lord;
You will be there, Lord, you always will be there.

Our Lovefeast

St. George's, Windsor

Come, ye thankful people, come, raise the song of harvest home;
All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin;
God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come, raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field, fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown, unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

Even so, Lord, quickly come, bring Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin,
There, forever purified, in Thy garner to abide;
Come, with all Thine angels come, raise the glorious harvest home.

Dix

For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies;
Lord of all, to thee we raise our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild;
Lord of all, to thee we raise our hymn of grateful praise.

For thy church, that evermore lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore her pure sacrifice of love;
Lord of all, to the we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

Duke Street

Give to God, our immortal praise; mercy and truth are all his ways;
Wonders of grace to God belong; repeat his mercies in your song.

He built the earth, he spread the sky, and fixed the starry lights on high;
Wonders of grace to God belong; repeat his mercies in your song.

He sent his Son with pow'r to save from guilt and darkness and the grave;
Wonders of grace to God belong; repeat his mercies in your song.

Our Blessing

Come, Lord Jesus, our Guest to be and bless these gifts bestowed by Thee.
Bless our loved ones everywhere and keep them in Thy loving care. Amen.

Partaking and Sharing

The Lovefeast has always been a meal of fellowship and gratitude. As we gather for this Thanksgiving Lovefeast, we invite you to find someone in the congregation, near or far, and share with them one moment of God's presence in your life this year for which you are thankful.

Collecting of Cups

Wir Pflugen

We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land,
but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand;
he sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes and the sunshine, and soft refreshing rain.
Refrain:
All good gifts around us are sent from heav'n above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love.

He only is the Maker of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower, he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him, by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children, he gives our daily bread. Refrain

We thank you, our Creator, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food;
accept the gifts we offer for all your love imparts,
and what you most would treasure our humble, thankful hearts. Refrain
