ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPEN HOUSE SOON

Plans are being made by our Capital Campaign Steering Committee to invite everyone after one of our upcoming worship services to an Open House in the old sanctuary to see the work that has been done. This room has been without heat for quite a while. You will be able to feel the heat and see how this part of our church is now able to be used as a multi-purpose area for our choir, our Preschool and for other groups in our church.

NEW MEMBERS CLASS NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday, Pastor Doug will teach a New Members Class following our worship service in the Fellowship Hall. This class will include lunch. This class is for anyone interested in joining our church family or for those who would like to just learn more about our church. If you are interested in attending the class, please let Pastor Doug know or call the church office.

POTLUCK LUNCHEON – SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4

Our Joint Board invites everyone to a potluck luncheon after our worship service on Sunday, February 4. After eating, our Board of Elders and Board of Trustees would like to share our Church Goals for 2024. Our boards look forward to hearing your feedback and how you can help our church family achieve our goals!

OUR CAPITAL CAMPAIGN CONTINUES

We are in our second year of our two-year Capital Campaign, “In All Things Love: Restore, Renew, Rejoice” to raise funds for the needs of our church building. We plan to meet our goal by our 100th Anniversary celebration in October. Campaign brochures are located in the pews and the vestibule. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this campaign. If you would like to make a pledge, you can put it in the offering plate or turn it in to the church office.

100TH ANNIVERSARY AFGHAN

We are taking pre-orders for the 100th Anniversary Afghan displayed in the narthex. To place your order, please call the church office or fill out the sign-up sheet in the narthex. They are $60 each and payment will be due at pickup.

FLOWER CALENDAR FOR 2024

Our 2024 Flower Calendar is posted on the lectern in the narthex. If you would like to sign up for flowers, please pick the Sunday you would like to provide flowers.

MESSAGE NOTES

IN ALL THINGS LOVE: LET’S HAVE A BALL!

When we do things for God, they should always be done in _____!

When we do things for God, it _____ the light of Jesus!

The key word for this “let’s have a ball” message is _____!

STEWARDSHIP PRINCIPLES

God is the source of all we have.

God lets us manage what He has given us.

The principle of _____ and _____.

“Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously . . . You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion.” 2 Corinthians 9:6

We should be doing _____.

“But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great . . .” Luke 6:35

Jesus and the Bible teach that we should give without expectation, yet you will be _____.

Three types – the _____, the _____, and the _____.

The principle of using our _____.

Lessons from Jesus’ Parable of the Talents

We are accountable regardless of our gifts.

God expects us to multiply what He’s blessed us with.

Doing nothing with what we have is a great sin to God.

How we use our gifts today determines the gifts we receive tomorrow.

Throughout the years, King Moravian has experienced:

_____ celebrations!

_____ celebrations!

Celebrations when we meet our _____!

If you follow along with the Message Notes, the words that go in the blanks are:
love, shines, celebrate, sowing, reaping, good, blessed, keeper, trader, giver, talents, physical, spiritual, goals

Congregation Watchword for 2024:

Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:16

ORDER OF WORSHIP

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE – “The Star Carol”

Mark Anderson (b. 1947)

CALL TO WORSHIP – “Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light”

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Break forth, O beauteous heav’nly light, and usher in the morning.

Ye shepherds, shrink not with affright, but hear the angel’s warning.

This Child, now weak in infancy, our confidence and joy shall be,

The pow’r of Satan breaking, our peace eternal making.

WE BRING OUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS TO GOD

Offertory Prayer

Offertory – “Wie schon leuchtet der Morgenstern”

(How lovely shines the Morning Star)

Johann Christoph Bach (1642-1703)

* Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen.

ANTHEM – “Sing Out the News!”

Don Besig (b. 1936) and Nancy Price (b. 1958)

Sing out the news, yes, sing out the news,

Tell all the world this Christmas season;

Sing out the news, that wonderful news that Christ the Savior is born!

Angels up in heav’n above, sing out the news, sing out the news.

Tell of joy and tell of love. Sing out the news, sing out the news.

Let your voices fill the air; join in, people ev’rywhere,

We have joyful news to share for Christ the Savior is born.

God has sent His tiny Son, sing out the news, sing out the news,

Bringing peace to ev’ryone. Sing out the news, sing out the news.

Spread the news that He is here, sing out loud and sing out clear!

Sing for all the world to hear that Christ the Savior is born!

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Christ the Savior is born.

MESSAGE – IN ALL THINGS LOVE:

LET’S HAVE A BALL!

GOD'S WORD FOR US

2 Corinthians 9:6-8

Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

Matthew 25:14-30

"For it will be as when a man going on a journey called his servants and entrusted to them his property; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them; and he made five more. So also, he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bring five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed, and gather where I have not winnowed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to every one who has will more be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.'"
